

American Decency Association

PO Box 202, Fremont, MI 49412 231-924-4050 www.americandecency.org

Encouraging Christians to guard their hearts

October 2013

Pam Stenzel & Frank Gaffney coming to MI

We believe you share our burden and concern regarding our embattled country. To help address a couple areas of embattlement, we have scheduled two upcoming conferences to inform, exhort, equip and stir hearts and lives.

The first conference features Pam Stenzel on Friday, October 18 with two presentations – at 1:00 PM and again at 7:00 PM in the auditorium of ADA’s headquarters, 203 E. Main Street in Fremont, Michigan.

This is a tremendous opportunity for adults and teens to hear Pam’s eye-opening and life-impacting presentation. The message she shares is an important one for parents, grandparents, and youth to hear.

Who is Pam Stenzel? To give you a idea of her powerful testimony, let me quote from Pam’s book Nobody Told Me:

Forty-six years ago in Michigan a young woman became pregnant. She had a lot of difficult choices to make, maybe more so than some because she was raped. Abortion may have been legal in Michigan in the case of rape in the 1960s, but this 15 year old girl chose to give her child life and then to place that child with an adoptive family. That child was me.

My biological father is a rapist. I don’t even know my ethnicity, but my life still has value and it isn’t worth any less than any of yours just because of how I was conceived. And, I do not believe that I deserved the death penalty because of the crime of my father. All of my life I have had to listen to the rhetoric that every child should be wanted and planned. I have heard people say, “I wouldn’t have an abortion. That would be terrible but if it were rape, well then...?” I guess that means that I am a “mistake!” I don’t believe that. I believe that every child is wanted by someone, and I believe that God in His mercy had a plan for me.

I’ve asked all the tough questions. Did God plan me? Does God plan rape? I memorized the verses when I was little like “You loved me before the creation of the world” (John 17:24) and “Before I formed you in the womb I knew you” (Jeremiah 1:5). Did that mean me? I might not have all the answers to those difficult questions, but this is what I do know; I know that my God is so awesome and so amazing that He is capable of taking your worst pain, whether it was something that you chose or whether it was something that was done to you, and my God can make something very beautiful come from that. That is Amazing Grace – the ability of God to even take what Satan meant for evil and make something good come from that. ...

[Continued on page 2]

American Decency Association

PO Box 202, Fremont, MI 49412 231-924-4050 www.americandecency.org

Encouraging Christians to guard their hearts

October 2013

Pam Stenzel & Frank Gaffney coming to MI

We believe you share our burden and concern regarding our embattled country. To help address a couple areas of embattlement, we have scheduled two upcoming conferences to inform, exhort, equip and stir hearts and lives.

The first conference features Pam Stenzel on Friday, October 18 with two presentations – at 1:00 PM and again at 7:00 PM in the auditorium of ADA’s headquarters, 203 E. Main Street in Fremont, Michigan.

This is a tremendous opportunity for adults and teens to hear Pam’s eye-opening and life-impacting presentation. The message she shares is an important one for parents, grandparents, and youth to hear.

Who is Pam Stenzel? To give you a idea of her powerful testimony, let me quote from Pam’s book Nobody Told Me:

Forty-six years ago in Michigan a young woman became pregnant. She had a lot of difficult choices to make, maybe more so than some because she was raped. Abortion may have been legal in Michigan in the case of rape in the 1960s, but this 15 year old girl chose to give her child life and then to place that child with an adoptive family. That child was me.

My biological father is a rapist. I don’t even know my ethnicity, but my life still has value and it isn’t worth any less than any of yours just because of how I was conceived. And, I do not believe that I deserved the death penalty because of the crime of my father. All of my life I have had to listen to the rhetoric that every child should be wanted and planned. I have heard people say, “I wouldn’t have an abortion. That would be terrible but if it were rape, well then...?” I guess that means that I am a “mistake!” I don’t believe that. I believe that every child is wanted by someone, and I believe that God in His mercy had a plan for me.

I’ve asked all the tough questions. Did God plan me? Does God plan rape? I memorized the verses when I was little like “You loved me before the creation of the world” (John 17:24) and “Before I formed you in the womb I knew you” (Jeremiah 1:5). Did that mean me? I might not have all the answers to those difficult questions, but this is what I do know; I know that my God is so awesome and so amazing that He is capable of taking your worst pain, whether it was something that you chose or whether it was something that was done to you, and my God can make something very beautiful come from that. That is Amazing Grace – the ability of God to even take what Satan meant for evil and make something good come from that. ...

[Continued on page 2]

Pam Stenzel & Frank Gaffney coming to MI

[Continued from page 1]

Drawing from her personal story, as well as her visits with teens around the world, Pam talks about the consequences - both physical and emotional - of sex outside of marriage. It's been her experience that, if given the facts, today's young people are fully capable of making good, healthy decisions.

For years, Pam was on the "front lines" as Director of Alpha Women's Center, a counseling center for women undergoing crisis pregnancies. Over and over she heard from young women she counseled, "nobody told me" about God's design for sexuality and the consequences of not following His plan. Her experiences taught her that before teen pregnancy and STD rates could decline, attitudes of teens toward sex first had to change. Desiring to bring about that change, Pam started speaking nationally full-time and is in great demand both in the U.S.A. and internationally.

Our second conference features national security expert, Frank Gaffney. Back by popular demand, Frank Gaffney returns to Grand Rapids, Michigan on Saturday, October 26 at 9:00 AM, speaking at the Hilton hotel, 4747 28th Street, Grand Rapids, MI.

Very few, if any, have a greater understanding than Frank Gaffney of the battleground regarding Islamism, terrorism, Shariah, Civilization Jihad, the Muslim Brotherhood, Al Qaeda, Hezbollah, etc.

In addition, Frank conducts daily interviews with some of the top minds, researchers, writers and speakers on these various subjects, such as with John Bolton, former United Nations Ambassador; Jim Woolsey, former CIA Director; Lt. General Jerry Boykin, U.S. Army (ret) and many others.

Gaffney served as Assistant Secretary of Defense for International Security Policy under former President Ronald Reagan and is currently president of Center for Security Policy. The Center for Security Policy is nationally and internationally recognized as a resource for timely, informed, and penetrating analyses of foreign and defense policy matters.

With the ever-increasing turmoil in the Middle East headlining the daily news - Syria, Iran, Egypt, Benghazi, etc. - I know of no one with more knowledge and expertise than Frank Gaffney who can shed light upon these hotbeds of terrorism, the implications for America and our security, and our nation's response (or lack thereof). With his years of experience and his ability to so clearly communicate the nature and specifics regarding the multiple levels of threats that are arising around the world and in America, we extended our invitation to Frank to again update us.

Registration will assist us in preparing for these events. We are once again anticipating a full house. To register, call us 1-888-733-2326. You may also register online at www.americandecency.org or by emailing kimberly@americandecency.org.

Pam Stenzel & Frank Gaffney coming to MI

[Continued from page 1]

Drawing from her personal story, as well as her visits with teens around the world, Pam talks about the consequences - both physical and emotional - of sex outside of marriage. It's been her experience that, if given the facts, today's young people are fully capable of making good, healthy decisions.

For years, Pam was on the "front lines" as Director of Alpha Women's Center, a counseling center for women undergoing crisis pregnancies. Over and over she heard from young women she counseled, "nobody told me" about God's design for sexuality and the consequences of not following His plan. Her experiences taught her that before teen pregnancy and STD rates could decline, attitudes of teens toward sex first had to change. Desiring to bring about that change, Pam started speaking nationally full-time and is in great demand both in the U.S.A. and internationally.

Our second conference features national security expert, Frank Gaffney. Back by popular demand, Frank Gaffney returns to Grand Rapids, Michigan on Saturday, October 26 at 9:00 AM, speaking at the Hilton hotel, 4747 28th Street, Grand Rapids, MI.

Very few, if any, have a greater understanding than Frank Gaffney of the battleground regarding Islamism, terrorism, Shariah, Civilization Jihad, the Muslim Brotherhood, Al Qaeda, Hezbollah, etc.

In addition, Frank conducts daily interviews with some of the top minds, researchers, writers and speakers on these various subjects, such as with John Bolton, former United Nations Ambassador; Jim Woolsey, former CIA Director; Lt. General Jerry Boykin, U.S. Army (ret) and many others.

Gaffney served as Assistant Secretary of Defense for International Security Policy under former President Ronald Reagan and is currently president of Center for Security Policy. The Center for Security Policy is nationally and internationally recognized as a resource for timely, informed, and penetrating analyses of foreign and defense policy matters.

With the ever-increasing turmoil in the Middle East headlining the daily news - Syria, Iran, Egypt, Benghazi, etc. - I know of no one with more knowledge and expertise than Frank Gaffney who can shed light upon these hotbeds of terrorism, the implications for America and our security, and our nation's response (or lack thereof). With his years of experience and his ability to so clearly communicate the nature and specifics regarding the multiple levels of threats that are arising around the world and in America, we extended our invitation to Frank to again update us.

Registration will assist us in preparing for these events. We are once again anticipating a full house. To register, call us 1-888-733-2326. You may also register online at www.americandecency.org or by emailing kimberly@americandecency.org.